From the Community House School

Our Winter Show was so jolly and festive. The children sang numerous holiday songs and really got everyone into the spirit of the season. The students and staff of the Community House School wish everyone a happy and a healthy New Year.

The new year brings many new learning activities for our students this month. They will discover how to stay warm with mittens and hats and of course we will learn all about snow activities.

On January 16th we are delighted to announce that all students will enjoy a new and special program called Teddy Tennis.

They will participate in an indoor tennis skill program on Fridays for ten weeks.
