Music Reginae Productions present two performances of Jim and Sunny Knable's opera for Young Audiences "The Magic Fish" at The Community House. Based on The Brothers Grimm's "The Fisherman's Wife", The Magic Fish is an opera by The Brothers Knable performed by adults for audiences of children and well-behaved parents. The story revolves around the son of a fisherman who catches a magic fish who grants wishes-but will the family remember what is truly important? Or will they be swept away by their own greed? You'll just have to come to find out! Tickets are $15 per seat and can be purchased at the door or in advance at www.musicareginae.org
